

Tainan Prison, Correctional Services Department of the Ministry of Justice The Southern District "Clover Grass Camp" was held on November 2, 2019. Invite family members to go out and walk outside, get close to nature, feel the warmth of society

With the theme of "getting close to nature, looking for children's interest and embracing love", this camp is designed to explore the interactive experience of nature, parenting, rural antiquities and parenting. The happy dog puppet, the South Taiwan University of Science and Technology EMBA student welcome performance kicked off, the family members who participated in the enthusiasm and vitality infection, and then invited the Bianwa Art Cake Sightseeing Factory to lead the production of Halloween and happy dog style cake hand-made courses, when children Change into a baking suit, a happy smile and a look of expectation.

The Director of the Correctional Services Department, Mr Wong Chun-yiu, personally visited the venue and interacted with his family. He said in his speech that since the appointment of Minister Cai of the Ministry of Justice, he has been listed as a key administrative direction for the family support and assistance of the host family. "Timely Rain - Aid for the High-care Family Program for Refugees", including material care for low-income families, and transportation expenses for squatting activities, among which Clover Grass Camp is an important innovation for correcting education, this is the third time this year. I hope to work closely with my family and work together to rebuild the family function of the host.

In addition, through the attention of social resources, scholarships will be set up to encourage children to actively learn. In the difficult circumstances, the correctional organs will give family care and assistance at any time. The hoster feels the support of all walks of life to achieve the effect of enlightenment, and prepares for his return to the society and return to a happy family.

Afterwards, the "Happiness in the Clouds" campaign was carried out to convey the blessings and thoughts from the high walls through the blessing wooden cards and cloud video films produced by the occupants, and the intimate ideas were made to make the family feel warm and moving. In order to enable family members to enhance and strengthen parent-child relationship through the outdoor land game experience, a fun group game will be held in the Trojan Prairie. After lunch, watch the Ukrainian stunt show, the Kazakh horse show and implement a guided tour of the group park, and then share it with family education to give support and encouragement to family members.

Speech by the Director of the Correctional Services Department

Director Huang and the making of fondant cakes and mascots
Happy dog posing

Director Huang sympathizes with family members

Li Zongli, deputy head of the education counseling group and Guo Hongwen, the governor and his family, cut the cake

The family belongs to the outdoor prairie for the fun group game

All guests and their families took a group photo