

Correctional Services Department Tainan Prison Nanjian Spring Festival introduces the "parent-child cake making" course for tourist factory In the atmosphere of the national music and lion dance, repair and enhance family relationships

The Lunar New Year reunion festival will be held. On January 9, 109 (Thursday), the Tainan Prison will be held from 9 am to 11 am and from 2 pm to 4 pm, combining the resources of the Tainan area with procuratorial, guarding, and rehabilitation protection. The family support plan for the New Year atmosphere, handled the "face-to-face beneficiary activities of the 109 Chinese New Year host families," a total of 250 host families and 542 family members participated, with the hope that the host families will be encouraged by their families and comforted by family members to relieve the family. Feelings and family relationships.

For the first time, Li Xiuying, the leader of the Tainan Rehabilitation Counseling Group, invited the very famous Petewa Art Cake Sightseeing Factory to visit the supervisor to conduct the "Pastry in the good cup and the cup is full" parent-child fondant cake handmade experience course. To fulfill social corporate responsibilities and bring out the spirit of public welfare, I personally led 4 baking chefs to the prison to guide the host to work with their parents and children to make fondant cake. When the children put on cute baking bib clothing, their faces cannot be hidden The expression of expectation and excitement, during the DIY production process, the joyful atmosphere instantly infected each host and their families, and gradually realized and recollected the memories of the happy families of the past. For the connection of family relationships and the return to social life, it has its positive and positive effects. Help.

Mr. Qiu Yiyi, the deputy governor of the Superintendent, said that this event particularly appreciates the long-term care and assistance of prosecutors, guardians, and more security groups. At the same time, thanks to social enterprises for their enthusiasm for public welfare, which brings a wonderful warm time to the host and their families. I would also like to thank my family members who have come to Long Road and for taking the time to work hard. I hope that the host will cherish the emotions of the family and never give up, deeply reflect on regret, and work hard to return to social life in the future and rebuild a happy life.
