

January 14, 109 "Dumplings on the ground, Yuan Yuan full" face-to-face family support activities

The Lunar New Year is approaching. On January 14, this year (109), the Superintendent of Mental Rehabilitation will hold a face-to-face intimacy and celebration activities during the Spring Festival, "to allow students to get in close contact with their families and relieve their homesickness."

The branch supervisor cooperated with the Tainan Branch of the Taiwan Rehabilitation and Protection Association to arrange a "Dumplings Solid and Full Yuan" event. Dumplings resemble ingots. "Eating dumplings during the Spring Festival symbolizes a new year for families to get together and everything goes as expected." Participating in this kind-hearted gathering hosted by Bao Dumpling to share with his family is "I hope everything in the future will be successful, and my classmates will be down-to-earth and return to life after leaving prison."

The sincere party activities also planned the host's self-directed and self-directed drama "Fortune Teller" and "Life Education Drama Class" dance performances. "In addition to showing the results of sub-supervision and education, entertaining loved ones on the eve of the Spring Festival, and also remembering the family who accompanied him all the way."

In recent years, various types of installation art zones have been established, "to create a temperature-resistant detox environment and promote family support and care"; in order to create a warm and happy atmosphere, the supervisor also arranged for the host and family to complete the construction in January. The "Orchestra" took a group photo in the installation art park. The family members came from afar, and immediately printed photos and protected them. "Let the family bring home happiness."

The prisoner shares dumplings with his family, symbolizing success

The prisoner and his family filmed a warm family portrait in the installation area